Fr Joe writes.
Thanks to all who participated in our celebration of the Lord's Nativity and to all who selflessly gave up time and effort to prepare making it a joyful and worthy celebration. The choir deserved their clap at the end of the Night Mass of Christmas and we could extend that sense of gratitude to many others:
those who prepared the parish celebration of Reconciliation, stewards, pass-keepers, sacristy workers, readers, extraordinary ministers of the Eucharist, servers, cleaners, bulletin workers, money counters, stall workers, decorators and crib and Christmas tree workers, children's liturgy catechists. I must also express my sincere gratitude to all the kindness shown me and the patience afforded me over the period, all signs of God's goodness and love.

Individual parish donations came to £36 and £74 for the tree and decorations.. Many contribute by standing order each month and for this we are also most grateful.

Next Sunday, the feast of the Epiphany, we have a letter to be read from the Archbishop concerning justice and peace and a retiring collection is to be taken up for the Justice and Peace Commission of Scotland.

Thanks to those who take up the collections, men and women and people of different nationalities to reflect the universality (catholicity) of the Church.
