Church Opening: For the holiday period access may be gained by using the ramp door (sacristy entrance). This is a controlled entry and if you wish the code please contact Joe Quinn, Clare or Elizabeth, or anyone else who has the code. This will give access to the church Monday to Friday from 8.30 until 4 pm.

Fr Noel Burke R.I.P. We pray for the repose of the soul of Fr Burke who died on Thursday last. He served here from 1972 to 1973, was parish priest of St Agnes, Lambhill before moving to Holy Name. Details of funeral arrangements are not at hand at the time of writing.

Data Protection. The Archdiocese has given us a new parish e-mail to comply with the new legislation. The present one will be in operation until September.

Welcome into the Church community. Baptised recently were James Mills and Willow Maxwell and this weekend we have Cameron John Tait and Lucas Thomas Logan to be received into the Church. We welcome them and keep them in our prayers that they will grow in love of God and neighbour.

Finances Thanks also to all who contributed to the parish upkeep in our first collection which came to £1063 (including Gift Aid contributions). The second collection for parish renovation came to £520. The brown envelopes for renovation: £72. Standing orders have to be added to these amounts. Thanks to all for generous giving. From the legacy of an anonymous benefactor we have received a further £80,000 which will be used to fund the renovation of the windows and front doors. Mass this Sunday at 11 am will be offered for the benefactor.

Proposed new windows. Marshall Brown have been chosen to carry out the renewal of the windows and the front doors. We are hoping work will begin in the autumn.

Fr Joe writes. The ordination of Fr Darren Maslen SSS took place a week last Thursday in St Anthony's, Govan. While I was not able to make the ordination I did manage along to the First Mass on the Friday. Charles, one of quite a few from around here who naturally gravitate to old St Anthony's, was one of the first to greet me as I was looking around for the sacristy, for it was my first visit to the parish. I also met Fr Darren before the Mass and found him most charming. As we celebrated a beautiful Mass I was quite surprised that he seemed so confident for a newly ordained and how he swung the thurible side to side and even round and round. I had never seen that before! There was only an occasional cough and splutter with the smoke of the incense.

"I would say you have been doing this for a hundred years," I said after the Mass. How was I to know that he had been a Church of England priest beforehand! More surprise followed. The priest who had been sitting beside me on the sanctuary, I was told, had his wife and five children in the front row! He too had been an Anglican priest!

Anyway, I signed a card for Fr Darren on behalf of our parish and said Mass for him and for the work that lies ahead, and included a gift, also from the parish. It was a beautiful occasion. Another parishioner from here, summed it up when she said she felt she was walking on air as she came home.
