Father Joe writes ...

The Roman Missal presents us with a challenge in its directives issued for the celebration of the Easter Vigil.

We followed the rubrics as laid out and for the Old Testament readings we read all seven of them, although it is permissible to reduce the number. Gerry Devlin and the choir rose to the occasion once again and made it much easier for us to raise our minds and hearts to God.

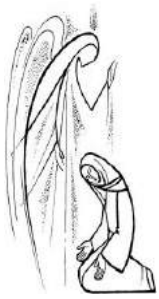

For many the highlight of the wonderful celebration of the Lord's resurrection was the reception into full communion of the Church of Robert Maxwell. Grace, his wife, and his three sons Paul, Craig and Callum joined him for the occasion. Robert is a remarkable man, a retired civil engineer, who spent much time abroad including six years as a hostage in Libya. Wherever he was based his faith was important and he would try to attend Mass whenever possible. It was Deacon Andrew who approached him to become a full member of the Church. He joined the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) group in preparation for the move. It was appropriate then that Deacon Andrew should give him his First Holy Communion. After the Vigil Mass (which was a bit longer than a football match, two hours) it was handshakes all round, a truly blessed night.

Last week's collections

Thanks to all who gave so generously over Holy Week and Easter. £1377 was taken up at the Presentation of the Gifts (including Gift Aid contributions) and £786 taken up in the second collection which is for the Re-wiring Fund.
Brown envelopes for the Hall Fund came to £112.
The collection on Good Friday for the upkeep of the Holy Places managed by the Franciscan Order came to £1024. SCIAF boxes amounted to £1456.

Many thanks to all who have contributed, including those who do so by standing order.

The feast of the Annunciation

Monday 4th April

This year, due to 25th March being Good Friday it was decided to transfer the feast.

Any artists out there?

We are calling on budding young artists to design a poster for the Garden Fete. Draw it, paint it or do it on the computer, just make it stand out!

The information that needs to be on the poster will be in the stall in the porch.
