PENTECOST

Fr Joe writes.

At the time of writing we look forward to another cracking day which is our Garden Fete. Two brand new bicycles for toddlers have been handed in and we look forward to seeing who will become their proud owners. Deacon Andrew might have some part to play in that outcome. We are delighted that so many people make contributions in one way or another and are so grateful to all who do so for the sake of the community and the parish.

Holy Water
Easter holy water is available beside the "Empty Tomb" at the back of the church or from the large urn at the front of the church.

Cluster Meeting. Notice for Parishes.
We have been asked to name a representative of our cluster to attend the Diocesan Pastoral Council on June 17th. One person at least is willing to do this and it would be good to give the representative an idea of our views and to this end a meeting is to be held in Our Lady and St George Hall on Tuesday 13th June at 7 pm. Do the lay people of our parishes agree that clustering is better than twinning? Do we wish at all costs to keep our parish identity separate or are we open to amalgamation? These and other issues can be aired at our meeting. Those who wish to come along should inform their own parish priest to give us an idea of numbers

Reboot your Faith with Chris Stefanick
If faith has faded over the years this is the occasion for revival and it promises to be an amazing experience. To find out more pick up a leaflet at the back of the church or contact: www.reallifecatholic.com

The General Election:
A message from the Bishops' Conference is available in the Catholic papers.

Last week's collections.

The second collection for the Catholic communications Commission came to £668. Brown envelopes for the hall: £54. Standing order contributions have to be added to the above amounts.

The Archdiocese has had a couple of people phoning to clarify the time of the Mass on Pentecost Sunday, when the Archbishop will confirm those adults whose names have been submitted to this office. Please note this will take place during the 12noon Mass in the Cathedral. (The Neophytes Mass has been moved to Trinity Sunday this year, again taking place at 12 noon).

One of our seminarians in Scots College has asked that we forward the following information:
