Father Joe writes

It was heartening to know that parish life went on as normal while I was away and I am grateful to all who helped, especially Fr Slavin, Fr Sebastian, the Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist, the readers and the sacristy helpers. Arrangements for the new windows also continued while I was away and on Monday last we learnt that work is due to start on Monday 3rd September and will continue for about 7 weeks. The legacy we have received and an interest free loan of £80,000 means that the money is in place to pay the £254,000 bill! We are most grateful for the generosity shown to us.

I was explaining to one person that the heating would improve and he said "What heating?" I have been able to wear sandals all winter in the church with this under floor heating, I went on, and when the work is done people will be coming in with only their stocking soles and we will have the best heating in the Archdiocese.

Teaser from the sacristy.

What is it that we all give but never take ourselves?

Church Opening: The church will remain open this week for visits Monday to Friday from 8.30 until 4 pm. Access may be gained using the side door facing the hall. The ramp door near the sacristy should also remain ajar.

The late Anne Coyle. Anne died during the week and she is to be received into our church on Monday 6th at 6.30 and funeral Mass on Tuesday at 9.30 am. May she rest in peace.

Data Protection. The Archdiocese has given all parishes a new parish e-mail address to comply with the new legislation and to reduce the risk of a breach of security. Our new email address is : olstgeorge@rcag.org.uk
The present one will be in operation until September.

Welcome into the Church community. Last weekend Aaran Anthony Leonard was baptised and welcomed into the Church community. Next weekend Noah John Callander and Emily Mary Callander will also be baptised and welcomed. We rejoice with their families and look forward to the children growing in faith and the love of God and neighbour.
