THIS WEEK

Church Opening: the church will open Monday to Friday from 8.30 until 4 pm. (Please use the side door facing the hall or the ramp door at the sacristy.)

Ascension Thursday 10th May.
This Thursday is the feast of the Ascension and is a holiday of obligation. Masses will be at 9.30 am and 7 pm. The novena to the Holy Spirit in preparation for the feast of Pentecost begins on Friday and our hymns during Mass will reflect this time of prayer as we open our hearts to receive the gifts of God.

First Communions are celebrated this Saturday, 12th May at 11.15 am. This will replace the 9.30 Mass.

Parish Council Meeting. Thanks to all who came to our meeting as we try to discern our strengths and weakness for the journey ahead of us.

Parking restrictions. The covering of the drain which runs between the church and the house has been presenting a trip hazard and parking restrictions are in place this weekend to allow the concrete to solidify. Apologies for any inconvenience.

Finances Thanks to all who contributed to the parish upkeep in our first collection which came to £1052 (including Gift Aid contributions). The second collection for the new windows came to £636. The brown envelopes for renovation: £114. Standing orders have to be added to these amounts.

Renovation Project. Tenders submitted will now be examined over the next few weeks by our consultant.

First Reconciliation for children at non-denominational schools. Tuesday 29th May is the date set for this celebration.

Confirmations Next meeting: 10th May at 6 pm in the church.

Fr Joe writes. May is Mary's month, a time of growth, colour and joy. My beloved gooseberry bush was given to me by Br Cyprian OSB on one of my visits to Pluscarden a number of years ago. I had asked him for a cutting, but instead he went to the bother of nurturing the cutting and so I transported a 6 month sapling on the back of the Dawes, which drew quizzical looks from fellow train passengers. I nourished it, pruned it each February, and in the autumn my favourite desert was warm gooseberries and a dash of honey. Then the Lord called me to leave my beloved and come to a land He would show me, and now I am wondering how does it fare, my beloved, for this is Mary's month, a month of growth and colour and joy.
