Assisted Dying Bill : Deanery South talk and presentation by Brian Cairns. Christ the King Hall 220 Carmunnock Rd, Glasgow G44 5AP Thursday 24th October 7pm. There is great concern about the Assisted Dying Bill that is to be presented to the Scottish Parliament. CAAD – Campaign Against Assisted Dying – would like to have meetings in each deanery to explain to parishioners the dangers of this bill. There is concern that many Catholics are sympathetic to the hard case of someone in great pain seeking death, that they do not appreciate the implications of allowing euthanasia and that experience from other countries is that any restrictions and safeguards soon disappear. Hopefully by our efforts we can stop this bill becoming law.
