Fr. Joe Writes

World Day of Prayer for Vocations A letter from Archbishop Tartaglia is to be read out before the final blessing. The Archbishop stresses the need for more vocations to the priesthood for the Archdiocese of Glasgow and the need to pray for such vocations.
The second collection is to be for the Ecclesiastical Students' Fund.

Holy Water Easter holy water is now available beside the Easter Empty Tomb at the back of the church or from the large urn at the front of the church.

First Communions take place this Saturday, 13th May at 11.15 am. This will replace the 9.30 Mass.
The meeting to prepare for First Communion is on Tuesday at 7 pm.

Our Lady of Fatima The apparitions to the three children of Fatima took place in the summer of 1917, beginning on 13th May when the "Lady" asked them to pray for sinners and an end to the World War. In the final apparition on 13th October, the "Lady" identified herself as Our Lady of the Rosary and called for prayer and conversion. (see poster in porch) (From the Liturgical Calendar for Scotland)

Adults who seek baptism in the Catholic Church need a regular meeting of persons in our community. Anyone who would like to contribute their time to this venture are invited to speak to Fr Joe.

The Stall Sunday Missals, crucifixes, rosary beads, large books to prepare for Baptism, First Reconciliation, First Communion, Confirmation and Marriage are now available.

Our outings for this year are well under way (today we are going to Mugdock Country Park Cafe) And we still have some places available. If you know someone who is quite isolated in our community and think they could benefit from some Sunday afternoon company, please put their details in one of our collection boxes.

We are working on our report to the parish and are always looking for ways to help people. One new approach we took this year was to purchase sleeping bags for donation to homeless people in Glasgow. None of this would be possible without your generous weekly contributions THANK YOU!
