Welcome into the Church. This Sunday after the 11 am Mass we welcome Grace Kate McKinnon into the Church as she receives the grace of baptism and declared a child and a daughter of God to the delight of her parents Claire and Mark and godparents Daniel and Veronica.

Birthday greetings to Ann Leonard who despite all she has been through has reached the age of 82 last Monday. The Lord still has work for her to do in this life. So too with Elizabeth Burnett who celebrated her 62nd on the same day. Elizabeth is noted for being a fast walker. Some very fast walkers would be well advised to wear a crash helmet!

Next Sunday we have a retiring collection for SPRED, which supports people who have learning or developmental disability to grow in faith. Anything you can give will be gratefully received. Volunteers are needed: see this month's Flourish, or drop in to the Centre G33 1EQ, Mon 15 Sept 1-3 or 6.30 to 8.30 or email Glasgow.spred@btconnect.com for Zoom on 18th Sept.

Parish Events

Church? It has been so generous of Parishioners to share their memories of our Parish over the last 75 years... from Baptisms to Pilgrimages, Garden fetes to trips to Ayr...We are reminded of so many great times in our lives when we have come together as brothers and sisters in Christ, celebrating together, supporting one another, accepting our part in building our Parish Community.
The monthly events over this last year have continued that work, with every event suggested and put into effect by Parishioners.
What will we do next year?
There are two main opportunities this month when we come together to share our ideas and let our voices be heard:-
