Matthew 21:42

Jesus said to them, "Have you never read in the Scriptures: 'The stone which the builders rejected Has become the chief cornerstone. This was the Lord's doing, And it is marvelous in our eyes'?"

Church Opening: Due to Fr Joe going on retreat this week the church will not remain open during the Monday and Tuesday as in previous weeks. Normal openings will be resumed the following week.

Fr Joe writes. Forty Hours Adoration concluded last Tuesday with the Blessed Sacrament raised in blessing over the assembled congregation. During the service the smoke of incense ascended as our prayers ascended to God. Not so much incense is used since it is not everyone who is unaffected by the smoke that envelopes the surrounding area.

During the three days many candles were lit and the names of families and individuals applied to the candle holders, indicating love and prayers for those named.

Many people came along during those days and sat in peace and silence before the Blessed Sacrament and you can be sure that the Lord would have made himself known a little more clearly during that time and guided them to face the duties and responsibilities of their lives.

Fr McKenzie, from the Property and Estates Office in Clyde St, and who served here for a while many years ago, wrote asking if the time given for our Forty Hours each year is a suitable one or not. Unless I hear otherwise, I will reply that it is suitable. We are kind of used to it at this time by now.

Hall Management Meeting. At our meeting last Thursday some issues were raised relating to the post of Premises Manager. As a result, new applications for the use of the hall will be put on hold until there is a satisfactory resolution. This will not affect parish events (baptisms, funerals, socials). Bookings that have already been lodged will be honoured as far as possible. We will resume taking new bookings as soon as possible.

Last week's collections. Thanks to all who contributed to the parish upkeep in our first collection which, back to normal, came to £1053 (including Gift Aid contributions). The second collection for Comboni Missions came to £1473.40 rather than the £473 of last week's bulletin. The brown envelopes for parish renovation : £63. And the second collection came to £610. Standing order contributions have to be added to the above amounts. Many thanks.
