Bishop Brian McGee, who will represent the Scottish Bishops at the Synod in Rome in October, has asked the people of the Archdiocese of Glasgow to look at the Working Document (Instrumentum Laboris) paragraphs 17-42 and offer a reflective and honest comment on them.

Prayerful reflection on this section should allow us to notice ideas that ruminate with our own discussions and concerns and help Bishop McGee emphasise what is important to the People of God in this portion of the Lord's vineyard.

You are invited to consider this with others or indeed offer a personal reflection of the material. The document in its entirety can be found on our Diocesan webpage under synod.

Please can you send a summary of your reflections to synod@rcag.org.uk any time before the 10th of August.

These will be synthesised and become the Glasgow contribution to assist the Bishop in his task. The other Dioceses in Scotland are reviewing different areas of the document.

STELLA MARIS

Retiring collection this weekend.
Stella Maris. (Apostleship of the Sea) Sea Sunday 9 July Seafarers and fishers play a vital role in all of our lives, but they often work in difficult, hazardous conditions.
In the last year, more crews have been abandoned by their employers than ever before. Many are still being denied the right to leave their ships for even a short break away from the relentless noise and pressure on-board.

SOUTHSIDE FOODBANK

The foodbank is open on Tuesdays from 10.30 to 12.30 in the hall.

For a long time more than 90% of the food and basic toiletries we shared with people were donated to us.

That has fallen significantly but it is still an astonishing volume of food donations and there is no way we could cope without these. Sadly the number of people needing our help is soaring and as a result we are having to buy more and more items. This is in itself a challenge as we don't receive regular funding and very little other funding from any level of government. Our only regular income is from standing order donations which are a bit over £1,000 per month. Most of these are Gift Aided which means we get an extra 25% tax back from the Government at no cost to the donor.

The main items we buy regularly are long life milk, diluting juice, tinned fruit meat vegetables and fish, pasta sauce, tea, coffee, sugar, toilet rolls.

We appreciate any donations – small or large.

Please call 07437-910155 (office hours) or 07708-504130 (all other times). Please be prepared to leave voicemail and we will get back to you as soon as possible. Or email us at info@glasgowsw.foodbank.org.uk

Thank you!
