Sunday Masses
Vigil: 6 pm; Sunday 9.30 and 11 am.
Weekday Masses: 9.30 am

The novena to Our Lady of Perpetual Help:
Mondays at 7 pm.
Rosary after Mass most days.

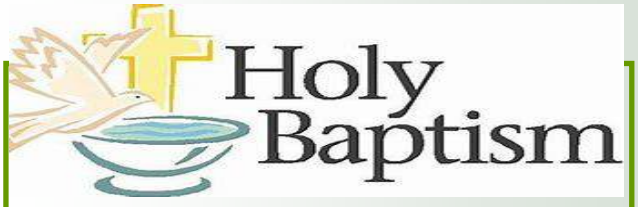

Weekday Masses in July.
We are hoping to have a priest available to preside at the Eucharist on weekdays as well as Sundays. Fr Slavin has kindly agreed to be with us for the Vigil and Sunday Masses. During the week when there is no Mass there is to be a celebration of the Word and Holy Communion.

The church is open for private prayer 1.30 to 2.30 pm, and 6pm to 7 pm Monday to Friday, with individual Confessions being available Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday around 6.15 pm. Silence in the church is observed since loud talking disturbs those who have come along for private prayer.For those not able to be present physically our Masses are live streamed. Ordinations to the priesthood for Glasgow. Over the next few months we have 3 to be ordained to the priesthood: Edward Toner in Saint Paul's, Shettleston, Frank McKendry in Holy Cross Croy, Douglas Green in Saint Andrew's Cathedral.

Two ordinations to the Permanent Diaconate will also take place over the summer: Paul Brady in Saint Robert Bellarmine's, Househillwood, and Tony Murphy in Sacred Heart, Cumbernauld.

Sea Sunday – 9th/10th July 2022 A retiring collection is to be taken up this Sunday for the work of the Apostleship of the Sea.

Baptism on 17th July. Callum James Kennedy is to receive the grace of baptism on this day after the 11 am Mass. We wish him and his family every blessing as he comes to be aware of the love that God has for us by letting us be led his children.

Finances Thanks to all who contribute to the parish upkeep. Collection last week came to £810. Gift Aid £470. Saints Peter & Paul £323.
Standing orders and other bank donations are also most gratefully received. Thanks to those who take up the collection these days, men and women and people of different nationalities to reflect the universality (catholicity)

Lourdes at Carfin!
For the third consecutive year Covid-19 complications have prevented the Archdiocese from holding its annual pilgrimage to Lourdes.
This year we are celebrating at Carfin Lourdes Grotto a Mass on Glasgow Fair Sunday. There will be sacramental anointing of the sick and the opportunity for those attending to use the wonderful facilities at Scotland's National Shrine in honour of Our Lady of Lourdes. We are delighted for the first time to be led in this domestic pilgrimage by Archbishop Nolan.

St Vincent de Paul Society. If you know of anyone who could do with a bit of assistance you drop a note into the box on exiting the church giving contact details if you have permission of the recipients, or telephone: 07947 194252

SOUTHSIDE FOODBANK: Please remember an item for the foodbank if you can. Thank you.

Correction: Memory Lane.

35 years ago two Sundays ago Fr Hugh Joseph Duffy SJ celebrated his first Mass here. He is now ministering in England. We keep him in our prayers. (Last week the 35 years was omitted!)

Gloria Mcgregor writes. My Trip to Medugorje

I flew to Split on May 4th with 3 friends. We then had a 2 hour drive to reach Medugorje. Each morning, after breakfast, we would walk to St James' church for the 10 am English speaking Mass. Every day the church was filled, with pilgrims from Scotland, Ireland, England and the USA.

After our morning coffee break, we would either walk through the fields to the Blue Cross, a place where Our Lady has appeared to the visionaries or visit the Risen Christ statue.

From 2 to 5 pm every afternoon there was Adoration in the small chapel. Each night we would sit outside at the back of St James with hundreds of other pilgrims to pray the rosary from 5-6pm. At 5.40 the church bells would ring and we would all kneel down as this was the time when Our Lady appears to the visionaries.

The Croatian Mass followed the rosary from 6-7 pm each night. It was a wonderful sight to see so many priests at the altar. From 7-8 pm there was Adoration most nights and Veneration of the Holy Cross on Friday nights. The silence was only broken by the beautiful sound of a violin or guitar being played. It was truly heavenly sitting outside as the sun was setting, singing beautiful verses in different languages.

Confessions would take place every evening from 5 pm and there would always be long queues outside the many confessionals, each displaying different language signs. I'm looking forward to going back in September.

'Blairentians and Friends'. Repair work needed for the chapel has meant the closure of this beautiful chapel. There is to be a gathering and final Mass in the chapel on Saturday 17th September 2022.
