Thanks to all who took part in our Forty Hours Adoration. Once again we had a special time of grace for the parish and we are most grateful to all who gave up time and put effort into our work of prayer and worship. So many remarked how beautifully adorned the sanctuary was with flowers and candles and there were some who spent hours ensuring that there was always someone in the church keeping watch. Others working in the background ensured sanitisation and cleaning, and the music for the services was most uplifting. Thanks also to those who contributed to the cost of flowers and candles.

The novena to Our Lady of Perpetual Help is held on Mondays at 7 pm, followed by a short period of exposition of the Blessed Sacrament.
The month of October is the month of the rosary and a plenary indulgence can be obtained for the recitation in church, with family, or in a pious association.
October is also the month of the missions. Please keep the work of the missionaries in your prayers including priests and religious who are in this country and far from homeland in the service of the gospel.
Friday afternoon rosary. At 1.30 pm now a group arrive at the church to recite the rosary, pondering with Mary on the Mysteries. All are welcome.

New Pilgrim Path Website of the week: Sacred Space

21 years ago, two Irish Jesuits were quick to appreciate the potential of the Internet as a force for digital evangelization when they started a website as a Lenten experiment in offering guided prayer online. The experiment extended far beyond Lent, going from strength to strength.

Today, the global phenomenon that is "Sacred Space" is among the top most visited prayer websites in the world. It attracts 18,000 visitors a day, of all Christian faiths and none from around the globe, praying at their computers, on their laptops, tablets or smart phones, in 22 languages.

The site guides the visitor through a session of prayer, in six stages, including preparing your body and mind, and culminating in reflection on a scripture passage chosen specially for the day.

This is a wonderful use of the Internet and can be visited at www.newpilgrimpath.ie.

The Scottish Catholic Magazine

Scotland's new national Catholic publication, will launch on Friday, October 15th, and will be in parishes that weekend. It will come out every two weeks and be priced at £2 an edition but that first one is free to let people see what it is about.

We have asked for 80 copies to be sent to the parish and hopefully more will be willing to support this new publication.
