SCHOOL OUT for SUMMER

The end of the school term gives us an opportunity to thank staff, parents and pupils for all their extraordinary hard work and resilience during the last academic year which has been so affected by Covid.

In the words of Pope Francis: "We pray today for teachers who have to work so hard to provide lessons via the internet and other digital ways, and we also pray for students who have to take exams in a way they are not used to. Let us accompany them with prayer."

This time also sees teachers apply for new posts and to aid this a new email address has been set up for those applying for approval. Please use this for enquiries and email applications during the summer break: Approval@rcag.org.uk

Website of the Week: John O'Donohue on Imagination as the Path of the Spirit

The late, great Irish poet, author and philosopher, John O' Donohue, wrote that "The greatest sin is the unlived life". In a powerful one-hour talk on "Imagination as the Path of Spirit", he urges the need to enter fully into our own lives, becoming all that we are capable of becoming – so that "when the time comes for us to lie down and die, we will be able to look back on a life that took honourable risks, that pushed its own frontiers, that tried to look after its own healing...that was compassionate, that didn't judge, and that tried to look after the poor and neglected, and the un-spoken for."
