"You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come."

Feast of the Assumption of our Lady into heaven. Bernadette said of her: "My lady is beautiful, beautiful beyond compare, so beautiful that when one has seen her once, one would wish to die so as to see her again; so beautiful that when one has seen her, one can no longer love anything earthly."
It was appropriate that Mary, the mother of the Lord, should share in her Son's resurrection from the dead in a special way and be a sign of hope and comfort for us all. Thursday 15th August, then, is a holiday of obligation and the Masses are at 9.30 am and 7 pm.
(Wednesday, 14th is the memorial of St Maximilian Kolbe who died in Auschwitz, taking the place of another prisoner who was selected for death. Maximilian had great devotion to Our Blessed Lady whom he called: "Immaculata".

Church Opening During the Day. Monday to Friday the church will be open until 3 pm. Access through the side door facing the hall.

Fabric and Finance Meeting is due on Tuesday 13th at 7.30 pm.

Fr Hugh writes:
Before I leave for Malawi, I want to thank you for all the blessings I received during my two months here. I especially want to thank you for the help for the people affected by the cyclone in Mozambique.
I go back to Malawi to start my third year in our Missionary of Africa formation house in Balaka, Southern Malawi.
Together with the Carmelites , Holy Ghost Fathers, Comboni and Montfort Fathers we have a Philosophy Institute, part of the Catholic University of Malawi.
We all have our own houses but study together. Last year we had 28 students for the Missionaries of Africa and hope to have 34 for the new academic year.
The Institute has over 120 students for the three year programme. Most are from Malawi and Zambia with others from Mozambique, Zimbabwe, Uganda and Kenya. It is blessing for the Church in Southern Africa.

There is political tension in Malawi after the recent elections where there was fraud on the part of the Government.
Please pray for a peaceful and just solution.
Please also pray for Mozambique, especially for the visit of Pope Francis in early September and elections in October.

Once again thanks for helping to make my holiday a happy one and looking forward to meeting again in 2020.

Finances. Thanks to all who contributed to the parish upkeep. Further details are available in the printed copy of the bulletin. Next Sunday the second collection is to be taken up for Assisted Parishes.

Dan Bradley and his family

thank everyone who sent Mass cards and sympathy cards and gave condolences on the passing of his wife Denise. There have been so many that we cannot reply individually. It has helped us to cope with the sudden loss. Denise's funeral was a wonderful celebration of her life.

Thank you

Fr Joe will say Mass for the intentions of the Parish in remembrance of Denise
