National Youth Pilgrimage, Sat 24th September 2022 [Dunkeld] youth@rcag.org.uk.

The Season of Creation Fr Joe writes. With this season now underway I was delighted to have my first sighting of a beautiful bird of prey just outside the back of the house in a large puddle created by the rain: a peregrine falcon. It was trying to bathe as some onlookers in the form of magpies and rooks were looking for an opportunity to attack. Perhaps some of these onlookers had suffered the loss of offspring at the claws of the same bather for the peregrines are known to devour more that the pigeons.

Other parishioners have told me about seeing a large bird around the gardens and on one occasion it had a magpie within its claws. However they were unable to identify the bird. I had plenty of time to get out binoculars and then to check my book to identify it before it flew off chased by its onlookers.

Have you had any unusual sightings of Mother Earth's creatures?

Thanks to those who take up the collection these days, men and women and people of different nationalities to reflect the universality (catholicity) of the Church.
Thanks also for the donation of flowers which was in memory of Irene Keaney on the first anniversary of her passing.

Finances Thanks to all who contribute to the parish upkeep. £1350 was taken up at the Presentation of the Gifts during the weekend Masses, 3/4th September.

SSVP is hoping to re-start some of its interactive activities for the community in the autumn. We primarily aim to reach people who are isolated, alone, or could benefit from a spiritual lift on an outing, trip to an event in the hall or some other event. If you know of anyone, and have their consent to do so, please drop contact details in our collection box at the back of the church or approach a member of SSVP. Alternatively leave a message on 07947 194252. We would also very much welcome volunteer helpers and new members to assist with our proposed projects as our active membership numbers are now threatening the viability of SSVP in the parish.

An Invitation to our Parish Gathering.
Our Synod discussions over Lent produced lots of good ideas and suggestions about the way forward for our Parish. We discussed how we need to change, how we can reach out to those who feel excluded, how we can be more welcoming to all and be a more caring community.
Parishes and diocese from all over the world are reporting back to Pope Francis about how they see the future of our Church. It is an exciting time ahead !
In our Parish we have an opportunity to take the next step forward at The Parish Gathering on Thursday 22nd September in the Hall at 7pm. The future of our Parish depends on everyone of us playing our part in making the Synod good ideas and suggestions a reality.
Please come along to find out more and how you can help.
