Parish Priest: Rev. Fr Joseph Boyle

Sunday Masses

Vigil: 6 pm; Sunday 9.30 and 11 am.

At present there is no obligation to attend Sunday Mass and you might want to consider coming along to weekday Mass if there are too many gathering for Sunday Mass.

The capacity for the church is 50. Mass is also broadcast to the hall at weekend Masses and Holy Communion distributed after Mass. People may also remain in their cars or stand in the car park observing the 2 m rule.

Contact details must be taken for all who attend. Stewards will be on hand to attend to this. Special allowances may be made for more senior members of the community.

The church is open for private prayer Monday to Friday: 1 pm until 3 pm and 6 pm until 7 pm.

Confessions: Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday 6-7pm

Sacraments:

Baptism: Parents who seek to bring up their children with the gift of faith should request baptism for them. Adults too may receive the grace of baptism if they have not already received the sacrament. If resident outside the parish, you are to receive permission from the parish of your residence.

Sacrament of the Sick: The Anointing of the Sick is for those whose health is seriously impaired by sickness or old age. We should not follow the wrongful practice of delaying the sacrament.

Marriage: Baptised Catholics are obliged to follow the Church's procedures for marriage. Civil marriages for Catholics can be regularised enabling them to receive Holy Communion.

Prayers for the Dying: Praying the rosary can be a most comforting experience for a person preparing to move on to the new life. If the person can receive Holy Communion this may be given as Viaticum or Food for the Journey. Other prayers and readings are available on request.

Funerals: Please inform the parish priest. If outside the parish please inform priest of parish of residence.

Pray for those who have died: John Clark, Nan Laverty, Jim Callender, Vincent Scott, David Casey and for those whose anniversaries occur: Ivy Rosina Crowther, Nan Toner, William Flannery (3rd) and Betty McFadden (6 months)

Pray for those who are ill. The sick at home, in hospital, in nursing homes are to be remembered in our Sunday Masses. (For names to be entered into bulletin please obtain written permission.)

First Communions: more celebrations are on 24th and 31st October.

SSVP Notice If you are aware of someone who could benefit from some kindness at this time, maybe a neighbour or someone you otherwise know, you are invited to collect one of the "afternoon tea goody boxes" from the table outside the hall after the 11 am Mass, observing the 2m rule.

Finances Thanks to all who contribute to the parish upkeep last weekend. £941 was donated after Mass, £107 at other times and for the renovation fund, £24. Standing orders and other bank donations are also most gratefully received.

Flourish is back print and it is free. Please take a copy home or for a neighbour who might appreciate it. It is not allowed to pick up a copy and then put it back. If you pick up a copy take it away with you

A digital version of the paper is available at the usual address – www.flourishnewspaper.co.uk .This month's edition has major coverage of the Holy Father's new encyclical, Fratelli Tutti, which can be accessed at: http://www.vatican.va/content/francesco/en/encyclicals/documents/papa-francesco_20201003_enciclica-fratelli-tutti.html

radioalba.org Radio Alba majors on Morning, School, Evening and Night Prayer, and now has recorded Masses on Sunday, and Prayer from Glasgow Churches Together during the week.

It introduces the Sunday and daily readings and, through our half-hour Magazine, draws attention to the good works that the Church and the churches are doing

Fr Joe writes. Thankfully we have been spared further restrictions in the latest tightening up, though we are always under review. We are also grateful that there were no restrictions on the golf and there was talk about that before Mass one day last week. The talk reminded me of two grandparents at their granddaughter's First Communion celebration when one of them made excuses to be off. It was to the golf, which prompted the remark from the spouse: "I think you love golf more than me!" To which the reply was: "I love cricket more than I love you!" They were though a most devoted couple.
