Fr Joe writes. Last Sunday, in time for Our Lady's birthday and our parish feast day, Mary O'Malley came along to view the newly installed replacement altar which is to be in memory of her late husband John O'Malley. The altar had been in storage for several months awaiting the insertion of the altar stone containing saintly relics. This was accomplished just about a week ago. I assisted John Brodie, Sean and Frank Farmer lifting the altar, which was in the garage, onto the trolley. George Crawford arrived to add the finishing touches to the installation. Mary was delighted, and noticed the natural wood blending so harmoniously with the rest of the surroundings, the ambo, the chair, the crucifix, the floor tiles and the benches. It is a fitting tribute to John.

It is several years since the matter of a replacement altar was raised at a Liturgy Group meeting. The one we have been using came from the alcove of Our Lady. Several attempts to find a replacement were in vain until an eagle eye spotted one on the Ormsby website, but would it be a fitting replacement? On Sunday last the question was answered in the affirmative and Mary said: "My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour."

The monthly Pro-Life Mass is on Wednesday, 15th September at 7.30pm at Holy Cross, 113 Dixon Ave, G42 8ER. Adoration begins at 6.15pm.
The celebrant will be Fr Martin Eckersley

New Pilgrim Path Website of the week:
An Ecological Examen

Christian churches worldwide are celebrating the Season of Creation from 1st September to 4th October (the Feast of Saint Francis of Assisi). The 500-year old Ignatian Examen is a daily prayer of review, used across many Christian denominations. The purpose is to discern the ways in which God has been present to you, the times when the Holy Spirit was drawing you towards life. A special 'Ecological Examen' has been developed as a tool for reflection and action to help deepen our call to care for creation and the most vulnerable. This inspiring self-guided resource can be accessed at: www.newpilgrimpath.ie.

Finances Thanks to all who contribute to the parish upkeep. £1184 was taken up last weekend (5th Sept) at the Masses, a further £133 was handed in as donations also for the parish upkeep, and £16 for the parish renovations. Standing orders and other bank donations are also most gratefully received.

Thanks to those who take up the collection these days, men and women and people of different nationalities to reflect the universality (catholicity) of the Church.
