Thanks to all who helped with the Forty Hours. This year again we have had a few days when the parish was, as it were, on retreat focussing our attention on the gift of the Eucharist and we are most grateful to all who helped with the celebration, the priests, the flower arrangers, the stewards, the altar arrangers with the candles and other supplies, all who set aside time to keep watch, all who contributed…. We are most grateful even though they might all say: "We are mere servants; we have done no more than our duty."

Then he said to him, "Stand up and go;
your faith has saved you."
