Fr Joe writes. May is Mary's month, as the poet Gerard Manley Hopkins reminds us in his poem "May Magnificat". And for me it is also a month of First Holy Communions, Confirmations, and the Legion of Mary's celebration of 90 years in Scotland. I have been part of the Legion of Mary for about 40 years and have been enriched in so many ways as a result of belonging to this family.

The Archbishop will be main celebrant at the Mass at Carfin next Sunday and I will be on the bus is leaving from here. I know that I will be missing the Curry Night put on by Mr Joseph but I'm sure it will be a special night for all who will be there. I am reminded of one lady of the house who said to her errant husband when he returned late for his dinner: "Your dinner is in the dug!"
