Pope Francis wants this year to be a time for Catholics to contemplate just how merciful God has been to them and to understand better how we are called to be merciful to others in turn.

Fr Joe writes:

End of the Year of Mercy.

To mark the end of the Year of Mercy the parish has invited the other parishes in our "cluster" to join us this, Thursday, 17th November for the celebration of the Mass at 7 pm. This takes in Our Lady of Lourdes, St Anthony's and St Constantine's and ourselves.

Pope Francis has called us to reflect on the mercy of God especially during this past year. He has made many significant gestures demonstrating the mercy of God since his appointment as Bishop of Rome. He asks us also to bring that mercy to others in the course of our lives. Let's demonstrate our solidarity with Pope Francis by coming out in numbers this Thursday night in the darkness of winter.

Feast of St Margaret, Patron of Scotland is celebrated on Wednesday 16th November

Neighbourhood Groups One group has survived these past thirty years or so, and now is delighted to absorb other folk who wish to be part of this building of community through the Gospel message. Another group is also starting up and, with the help of God, will enrich the lives of those who take part and so strengthen the life of our parish.
