The Presentation of the Gifts (The Offertory Procession,)

"Bread, Fruit of the earth and work of human hands.
Wine , Fruit of the vine and work of human hands."
The Offertory Procession is an important part of Mass
It ensures that everyone at Mass is participating in the Eucharistic offering alongside the priest.
Those who bring the gifts of Bread and Wine to the Altar represent all the people, the entire community offering ourselves to God- our joys, struggles and sorrows of life asking Him to transform us, so that we may be one , spreading His love to others.

Next Sunday we welcome Eilidh Camila into the Church as she receives the grace of baptism after the 11 am Mass. Her proud parents, Jasmin and Hervin, together with here godparents Gordon and Denia, will complete the process of coming to love God and neighbour.
