Rosary after Mass most days.

The Church welcomes and wishes all peoples to believe in Jesus Christ, who suffered, died and is risen from the dead, to be baptised in his name.

The church is open for private prayer 1.30 to 2.30 pm, and 6pm to 7 pm Monday to Friday, with individual Confessions being available Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday around 6.15 pm.

Silence in the church is observed since loud talking disturbs those who have come along for private prayer.

For those not able to be physically present our Masses are live streamed.

Website of the Week: Pray As You Go:

Worldwide Daily Meditation Phenomenon

If New Pilgrim Path has a favourite website from our years of trawling, it is Pray As You Go, a daily online meditation podcast which includes a mix of music, scripture and short reflective questions. Based on Ignatian spirituality, the meditations are between 10 and 13 minutes long, allowing for a quick, but focussed time of prayer. There is the opportunity to go deeper through other prayer tools, series, retreats and resources. It's always free and always simple.

Since its founding in 2006, Pray As You Go has been adapted into ten languages and it is used 30 million times a year.

Invitation

Would you like to sing a large and varied repertoire with a friendly and sociable group of singers? The St Mungo Singers is the Archdiocese of Glasgow's Liturgical Choir. We sing at Archdiocesan services, special parish events and work closely with Glasgow Churches Together, supporting Ecumenical Services and Civic events.

New members are very welcome. We are starting the new session on Sunday 14th August with a Wine and Cheese etc at 7.00 in St Leo's—would you like to join us for a few rehearsals and see if this is for you! Or would you prefer to turn up on 21st for the rehearsal?

Rehearsals are held on Sunday evenings from 7.00 to 8.30 at St Leo the Great, 5 Beech Ave, Glasgow G41 5BY and our events do not coincide with parish events.

Cushions for the benches. We had planned to equip some of the front benches with cushions to make it easier for our more senior members to sit through long sermons, but the pandemic and the need to sanitise put a hold on the plan. Now that the pandemic is not so life threatening and with the Anointing of the Sick being celebrated on the 21st it was deemed right to place an order with a view to being ready for the 21st. The cost is said to be just over £1000.
