"Why do you seek the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen" (Luke 24:5-6).

"Resurrexit, alleluia - He is risen, alleluia!"

Fr Joe writes:

The Stall: We have now stocked up the stall with religious items though we are waiting for more to arrive. However, we do have Easter cards and they will be available after Masses this weekend and possibly also during the week.

The Chrism Mass: was marked by the large number of priests who renewed their priestly commitment as is customary at this Mass. Seeing such a large number one would think "What's all this about the shortage of priests?" Further reflection, however, would reveal that all are not as young as Fr Tony Parsons and Fr Joe.

The Archbishop consecrated the oils for use in the diocese for the sacraments of baptism, confirmation and the anointing of the sick. Many in our parish will be anointed with this consecrated oil, although confirmations for those in primary 7 will not take place till May 2018 .

Last week's collections: Thanks to all who contributed to the parish upkeep in our first collection which came to £1178 (including Gift Aid contributions). The second collection for the Sick and Retired Priests Fund came to £758. Brown envelopes for the hall: £78. Standing order contributions have to be added to the above amounts.

The second collection; when not a special collection will now be directed to the hall fund in the hope that this will be paid off at the end of the summer. It had been hoped that the second collection could be directed towards the new front doors and the windows above, but the income from the hall has not been what was expected.
