SCIAF'S FOOTBALL COMPETITION At the beginning of August we entered a team from the parish. We thank the team that took part, though we did not win the competition. There was a bit of a controversy over each of the 25 goals we lost, and we were on the receiving end of some tough tackling, which the referee kept ignoring, but we were charitable and took defeat in a very gentlemanly way. We had a Taekwondo specialist on the sidelines but decided not to call on her services, for it was only a charity match. We donated £125 to SCIAF. Next year we will have padded clothing and hard hats.

Congratulations to Marie and James Mullen who celebrate 25 years of marriage last Monday. They remembered that it was Fr McAlinden who presided and that was also the day of his birthday.
