Sunday Masses

Vigil: 6 pm; Sunday 9.30 and 11 am.

Weekday Masses: 9.30 am

The novena to Our Lady of Perpetual Help: Mondays at 7 pm.

Rosary after Mass most days.

The Church welcomes and wishes all peoples to believe in Jesus Christ, who suffered, died and is risen from the dead, to be baptised in his name.

The church is open for private prayer 1.30 to 2.30 pm, and 6pm to 7 pm Monday to Friday, with individual Confessions being available Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday around 6.15 pm.

Silence in the church is observed since loud talking disturbs those who have come along for private prayer.

For those not able to be physically present our Masses are live streamed.

Finances Thanks to all who contribute to the parish upkeep. £1459 was taken up at the Presentation of the Gifts during the weekend Masses 8/9th October. Many contribute by standing order each month and for this we are also most grateful.

Thanks to those who take up the collection these days, men and women and people of different nationalities to reflect the universality (catholicity) of the Church.

Fr Joe writes. The weather forecast predicted the rain to clear up in the afternoon, but my trust was misplaced and after a good long cycle I stood standing on the train water dripping off me. There were plenty of empty seats but it is better to stand when soaking wet.

As the train stopped at Westerton station, not far from the Forth and Clyde canal, my thoughts turned to another time when I stood soaking wet on public transport, I was in primary 4 at the time and about 100 yards from where the train stopped I was the only one who would venture onto the thawing ice of the canal. For a week or so we had played on the frozen ice but this time there was a crack and I sank into the water. I had never been to the swimming baths but knew to keep the arms and legs going. After one or two failed attempts to reach me it was the primary 7 boys who formed a chain and pulled me out. On the bus home I stood with the water dripping off me.

A few years ago my brother met the boy who pulled me out and I am most grateful to him. As for my mother, she attributed my rescue also to the prayers of Mary, Mother of the Lord, for the family rosary was part of our daily routine and the Miraculous Medal worn round our necks. I still say the daily rosary, and I still am in need of her prayers.
