Weekday Masses: 9.30am

PRIVATE PRAYER: The church is open for private prayer 1.30 to 2.30 pm, and 6pm to 7 pm Monday to Friday. Silence in the church is observed since loud talking disturbs those who have come along for private prayer.

Note: there will be no confessions the evenings of Easter week.

Thanks to all who have helped. At the time of writing (Thursday) we are preparing for the Easter Triduum and gratitude is to be expressed to all who have been helping and will be helping. The Liturgy group have put a lot into our preparations, whether for the Penitential celebration, Mass of the Lord's Supper, Good Friday and the Easter Vigil.

Already the Altar of Repose for this evening is a work of art, with flowers and lights to create an atmosphere of prayer and watching.

We also have so many others: stewards, people who keep the church open during the day, cleaners of the church and altar linen, readers, extraordinary ministers of the Eucharist, the musicians and cantors, pass keepers, florist, bulletin workers, those counting money... We are also grateful to all who came along or joined us by means of the internet.

Easter Christening. After the 11 am Mass today, Easter Sunday, we welcome into the Church Ronan Matthew McStay, son of Jonathan and Nicola.

With his parents and godparents to help him we look forward to him growing up in our midst, contributing to the life of the Church, and finding favour with God and the human family.

Fr Joe writes. It was the dead of night, Good Friday morning, and a call from Deanfield Home roused me from sleep. One of the residents had passed away. Before long I was saying the prayers for the dead: "...go forth faithful Christian. May you live in peace this day...with Mary the virgin Mother of God, with Joseph and all the angels and saints,,,," and concluded with the Hail, holy Queen.

I could hear some voices in the corridor outside the room and as I emerged from the room I heard a mighty gasp from one of the staff who was thankfully seated down. The other was the one who had phoned me but hadn't said that I was in saying the prayers.

"Did you think there was a resurrection?" I asked.

"You gave me an awful fright," was all she could say.

"Ah well," said the other, "it is the Easter weekend!"

Happy Easter to all!
