Neighbourhood Groups. For those who wish to take part leaflets are available this weekend inviting you to participate.

Hall Management Meeting took place last week and we discussed various issues and ways of improving the service being offered for the glory of God recognising the limitations we are working under.

- It is proposed we construct another cupboard for cleaning materials in the corner outside the disabled toilet.
- We also hope to offer to young people sitting exams the use of the hall for study purposes with the possibility of tuition from the pool of teachers in our community. Our next meeting is in October.

Tuck Shop is cancelled this week. Cleaner is on strike. Hopefully, tuck will be available in the café.

Vincent Briody RIP Vincent loved to bring a smile to those in his company, having worked in the Co-op for all his working life. After he passed away the family were looking in the box containing the title deeds for the cemetery and they found a card on which it was written:

"Now I am in heaven!"
