PARISH GROUPS PHOTO DISPLAY

Have you had a look at the photos? Maybe you recognise the people pictured? All these groups are helping to build our Parish Community, but are short of volunteers.
Would you be able to help?

Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist.
The Archdiocese has commissioned to act as Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion until January 2028 the following: Bernadette Hill, David Purdon, Moira Currie, Rose Ann Dooley. We are grateful that they have accepted this ministry of service knowing that it will help them too in their development as followers of Christ who came not to be served but to serve.

PARISH BIBLE STUDY

A bible study will begin on 30th April at 7pm in the hall. This will consist of a series of videos filmed at biblical sites across the middle east and holy land, which connect the Word of God with the real-life places and associated historical events. You will learn how to read the bible and connections between the old and new testaments through understanding the timeline of salvation history. See the poster in the porch for further information. Meetings and video showings will be on the last Thursday of every month.

YOUTH MINISTRY NOTICE For those who responded to our earlier notice looking for helpers, members of the Youth Ministry team will be available in the small hall this Sunday (19th April) at 10.30 for a short chat. If you missed replying, no worries. Feel free to drop in.
