This Week

Church Opening: The church will remain open this week for visits Monday to Friday from 8.30 until 4 pm. Access may be gained using the side door facing the hall.
The ramp door near the sacristy should also remain ajar.

Data Protection. To comply with the new legislation, our new email address is: olstgeorge@rcag.org.uk The present one will be in operation until September.

Parish Council Meeting. The next meeting is Thursday 23rd August at 7 p.m. Updates on various aspects of parish life can be discussed.

Fr Joe writes. Data Protection policy prohibits me from naming the culprit. Hymns are chosen during the week by members of the congregation to ensure there is a variety. I announce the hymn numbers and usually the first line. So about a week ago I announced after Holy Communion that the thanksgiving hymn was No…… and "Lord Jesus Christ, you have come to us." Silence followed and no one would start the hymn. Eventually one kind soul started: "O Sacrament most holy…" When I sat down and looked up the hymn number I had been given the opening line was: "Little donkey…" The congregation did not have to look far to see who "Little donkey" was referring to.
Data protection needs revision!

Finances Thanks also to all who contributed to the parish upkeep in our first collection which came to £1104 (including Gift Aid contributions). The brown envelopes for renovation: £76. Standing orders have to be added to these amounts. Thanks to all who contribute in any way to the good of the parish.
The second collection for The Apostleship of the Sea came to £1143

The second collection this weekend is for Assisted Parishes.

Proposal for Vigil Mass time. No strong opinions have been expressed about a proposal to bring the Mass forward starting in January. Perhaps it is better it to leave it at 6.30.

Many thanks to everyone who has returned a completed liturgy survey form. There are still some blank forms at the back of the church and if you have not yet contributed there is still time to have your say
