PRIVATE PRAYER: The church is open for private prayer 1.30pm to 2.30pm, and 6pm to 7pm Monday to Friday, with individual Confessions being available Monday, Tuesday and Friday around 6.15pm and also on Thursday from 5.45-6.05pm. Silence in the church is observed since loud talking disturbs those who have come along for private prayer.

Welcome into the Church. Next weekend we welcome two new members into the Church: Kieran Anthony Keenan and Olivia Docherty. With their families and friends to help them they are to bring their dignity as Christians safely through life and then into the kingdom of heaven.

Freedom from Torture offers medical and therapeutic support for torture survivors now living in this country. At this tome of year every family or individual attending the centre will be given a Christmas box. Cards will be on sale on Sun. 28th Nov, or obtainable also from Magdalen on 883 8592 or by email: magdonmac@yahoo.co.uk See poster in porch.

Baptism: The Church welcomes adults and children who wish union with the Lord in his victory over evil and death and who wish to participate in the life of the parish.

Sacrament of the Sick: The Anointing of the Sick is for those whose health is seriously impaired by sickness or old age.

Marriage: For baptised Catholics marriages are to be solemnised by God's blessing.

Prayers for the dying. Praying the rosary can be a most comforting experience for a person preparing to move on to the new life. Other prayers and readings are available on request.

Funerals: Families are encouraged to choose from a selection of readings. These can be found on the internet: scripture readings for Catholic funeral Mass. The translation has to be one of the approved ones for the UK.

First Communions. Some children at non-denominational schools are due to make their First Communion and this will take place at the 11 am Mass next Sunday. And we may even hear some Gaelic input to our celebration of the Eucharist at this Mass.

Confirmations. Our first meeting is to take place this Thursday at 7 pm. We previously intended meeting in the small hall but now consider that it would be better to meet in the church.
