This Week:

Monday 25 is the feast of St Mark, evangelist. Thursday 28th is the feast of the dedication of the Cathedral (Clyde St) and the memorial of St Louis Marie de Montfort and Friday 29th the feast of St Catherine of Siena, Co-Patron of Europe

Father Joe writes…

First Communions take place this year on Saturday 14th May at 11.15 am. (Teachers in Lourdes Primary are to attend First Communions in Our Lady of Lourdes parish at 10 am and wish to be present here that day as well so we have changed the time to 11.15 here.) After Mass this weekend the children are invited to taste the bread we use for Mass.

It is during the Mass, during the consecration, that the bread and wine become the body and blood of Christ and through our sharing of this we become united with him and with each other. We keep the children and their families in our prayers that we all may treasure this wonderful gift that the Lord gives us in his great love for us.

Last week's collections Thanks to all who give so generously. £985 was taken up at the Presentation of the Gifts (including Gift Aid contributions) and £646 taken up in the second collection which is for the Ecclesiastical Students Fund. Brown envelopes for the Hall Fund came to £70.

Many thanks to all who have contributed, including those who do so by standing order.

Humanitarian Crisis in Ukraine. Pope Francis has called for a collection to be taken up across Europe this weekend and the Holy See is organising special forms of aid for the benefit of the whole population, regardless of religious affiliation, with a view to addressing the humanitarian crises in the most critical sectors. About 13,000 homes have been destroyed, about 9000 people died, many more suffering injuries, health care is in urgent need… Our second collection this weekend, therefore, is to be for this cause.

40 Hours Adoration in Croy. This will take place on the feast of Corpus Christi on 29th May and not as otherwise advertised, First Communion children from all over are invited to take part in the procession through the streets of Croy on that day beginning at 4 pm.

Parish Council Meeting.

The next meeting is to take place this Thursday at 7 pm. Groups within the parish should be represented and a short report given by each group. This should help us chart the way forward, encourage us to work for the glory of God and enable us to grow as a community and as the family of God.
