THIS WEEK

Praying for the Dead. Mass is being offered during the month for all included in our November Lists.

Opening During the Day. Monday to Friday the church will be open until 3 pm. Access through the side door facing the hall.

Education Sunday. This weekend, as well as celebrating the feast of Christ the King we also reflect on Catholic Education and thank God for the work done by our teachers and staff in our Catholic schools. A second collection will be taken up this week for the Catholic Education Service.

General Election Letter The bishops of Scotland have drawn up a letter to be circulated this weekend. They address such issues as Human Life, Marriage and the Family, Poverty, Freedom of Religion and Conscience, Nuclear Weapons and the Arms Trade. Copies are available in the porch of the church.

Advent Reflection Day at the Mill Hill Missionaries, Cardonald. This is to take place on 14th December. Details in the porch.

Advent Booklets giving the daily readings at Mass during the season are available in the stall at £1 per copy.

Bible and Catechism Class. Tuesday 26th at 7.30 pm.

Non-denominational school pupils in Primary 3. Pupils who wish to make their First Reconciliation next year are asked to assemble for an initial meeting next Sunday, 1st of Advent, 1st December, after the 11 am Mass in the hall.

Outing to Mr Joseph's. The past few years we have arranged a meal in Mr Joseph's in the town around the feast of St Andrew and have had enjoyable evenings. This year we plan to meet again on Tuesday 3rd December at 7 pm and those who would like to be part of the evening should hand in names to Fr Joe.

Congratulations to Ellen Kennedy who celebrated with her family her 98th birthday on 13 November. She keeps her mind active by doing crosswords and code breakers and, of course, is so faithful to her prayers.

Finances Thanks to all who contributed to the parish upkeep. Further details are available in the printed copy of the bulletin.

What we do at Mass. When we have listened to the Word of God then we take a breather, the congregation sits down and the pass keepers take up the collection to be used for the upkeep of the parish and the Archdiocese. At the Presentation of the Gifts the ones that are most important are the gifts of bread and wine. These gifts are from the fruit of the earth and transformed by the work of human hands, to be later transformed into the body and blood of Christ by the power of the Holy Spirit. Gifts for the food bank are also brought up together with the collection. During the procession it is usual for us to sing, in fact processions are times of joyful singing, just like the people of Israel on their way up to Jerusalem.
