November Masses. Mass is being offered each day whenever possible for all included in our November Lists. Other requests for Masses will be transferred into the care of the priest of Pluscarden Abbey.

Next Sunday is the First Sunday of Advent and starts a year in which the focus will be on Luke's Gospel. The new translation of the lectionary will be used from next Sunday.

We are so grateful to Archbishop Nolan who came along and presided at out Mass to begin our celebrations of 75 years. We are also grateful to Stephen McBride who came to do the MC; and to all involved in the preparations and the Mass itself, with special mention of our synodal group who have been working so hard to present opportunities for our reaching out to the community around us.

When requesting a notice to be included in the bulletin it is preferable to send the proposed notice to the parish email which will reduce administration work.)
