Fr. Joe Writes... Last Sunday, 18th September, was the second anniversary of the independence referendum and the first anniversary of my arrival in Our Lady and St George's. Thankfully, I feel as if I have made the transition fairly successfully.

Moving, after being a long time in one place, can be compared to the transplanting of a tree, and the younger the tree the easier it is to transplant. So maybe I am not as old as I look or as you think me to be!

My day ended with a meeting with two old parishioners, Tommy McMahon from St Philomena's and Stephen Blair from St Roch's. Stephen quipped that no doubt I would put in the bulletin the fact that I beat him at pool, and beat Tommy as well! I had no notion of doing so until he mentioned it but in any case it ended off a most satisfying day, a contented one for which I give thanks to God.

Youth Development Joseph Burns may be saying a few words today on how we wish to progress the youth involvement in the life of the Church.

Neighbourhood Groups. For those who wish to take part leaflets should be returned this weekend. The next step will be to arrange a meeting to work out the arrangements, place, time and form of the meetings.

The second collection this week the White Flower Appeal , for the work of the Society for the Protection of the Unborn Child (SPUC)

Leaflets are available (and possibly bookmarks too) at the back of the church. SPUC was founded to uphold the principle of respect for human life, in particular the life of the unborn child. The society's constitution was, and remains, non-religious, endorsing the recognition by the world community in the 1959 United Nations Declaration of Rights of the Child that the child "needs special safeguards and care, including appropriate legal protection, before as well as after birth."

Last week's collections Thanks to all who contribute in any way £917 was taken up at the Presentation of the Gifts (including Gift Aid contributions). Hall building fund collection came to £540. Brown envelopes for the Hall Fund came to £64 including Gift Aid. Standing order contributions have to be added to the above amounts.
