Finances Thanks to all who contribute to the parish upkeep and those who give so generously. Last weekend, 18/19 Jan £1252 was presented . Thanks to all who have contributed so generously, whether as the plate goes round or through standing orders. The parish benefits greatly also by those who are able to use the Gift Aid Scheme.

This weekend 25/26th January we have a retiring collection for the Assisted Parishes.

Parish Secretary. Barbara Quinn has now retired after nearly 10 years in the job. We are grateful for her service, keeping the office tidy, files neatly stored, letters printed and sent, finances recorded as required… Her dear husband Joe is happy to see her retired and is now enjoying more lavish meals and a more relaxing life style!

Margaret Russell is Barbara's replacement, learning quickly and bringing her own talents to the job.

Pilgrim Path Website of the Week: Celebrating the Nicene Creed This year marks the 1,700th anniversary of the Council of Nicaea which first formulated the beautiful, illuminating words of what came to be known as the Nicene Creed, common to a huge number of Christian denominations across the world.

Last Sunday, to mark the beginning of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, BBC's Radio 4's Sunday Worship programme dedicated its entire programme to a celebration of this extraordinary prayer. The Anglican poet/priest, Malcolm Guite says: The Nicene Creed has summarised, expressed, and opened out the heart of our shared Christian faith for seventeen centuries! …. It has even survived the tragic divisions of Christendom. For even as Churches and nations battled each other over different things…they still held this creed in common.

The Sunday Worship programme …explores how ""Each clause of the Creed is a highly concentrated and highly charged "nucleus" of Christian thought and belief and experience". Access it at www.newpilgrimpath.ie.
