26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sunday Masses

Sunday Mass and weekday Masses are live streamed. Go to the website for the link : www.olsg.org.uk

Mass Times: Vigil: 6pm. Sunday: 9.30am and 11am.

Weekday Masses: 9.30am

Sacraments: Check the parish website for information

Baptism: The Church welcomes adults and children who wish union with the Lord in his victory over evil and death and who wish to participate in the life of the parish.

Sacrament of the Sick: The Anointing of the Sick is for those whose health is seriously impaired by sickness or old age.

Marriage: For baptised Catholics marriages are to be solemnised by God's blessing.

Prayers for the dying. Praying the rosary can be a most comforting experience for a person preparing to move on to the new life. Other prayers and readings are available on request.

Funerals: Families are encouraged to choose from a selection of readings. These can be found on the internet: scripture readings for Catholic funeral Mass. The translation has to be one of the approved ones for the UK. One good website to check: olasv.org.uk (Use search box)

Nunraw Abbey: Guesthouse is now ready to receive guests. We offer full board and every room has an en-suite facility.

Welcome to Fr Brendan Murtagh who will be celebrating our morning Masses, Monday to Friday.

"Do not stop anyone from working a miracle in my name"

FORTY HOURS ADORATION

Forty Hours Adoration begins on Sunday 3rd October. The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed for adoration and prayer after 11 am Mass on Sunday. There will be a service at 6 pm on Sunday evening.

On Monday and Tuesday the adoration will begin after morning Mass and continue until the service at 7 pm each of these days.

The traditional practice of lighting candles for named loved ones will continue.

To enable the Forty Hours' we need people to commit to keeping watch. A list of times will be available next weekend.

We are grateful to all who participate in this special time of grace for the parish and all parishioners.

PRIVATE PRAYER: The church is open for private prayer 1pm to 2.30 pm, and 6pm to 7 pm Monday to Friday, with individual Confessions being available Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday around 6.15 pm. Silence in the church is observed since loud talking disturbs those who have come along for private prayer.

We are asked to pray for those who have died recently: Anne Hamilton, Peter Burns

For those whose anniversaries occur about now: Ann Marie Wason, Moya McGinley, Grace McGonigle

Pray for those who are ill. for the sick at home, in hospital, in nursing homes. Prayers are requested for: Robert Carroll, Chrissie McIntyre. (Permission from the person who is ill is required before insertion in the bulletin)

The Novena to Our Lady of Perpetual Help is held on Mondays at 7 pm, followed by a short period of exposition of the Blessed Sacrament.

We are grateful to all who come along during the week to pay a visit to the Blessed Sacrament and to the stewards who enable the church to remain open and accessible.

The month of October is the month of the rosary and a plenary indulgence can be obtained for the recitation in church, with family, or in a pious association.

Friday afternoon rosary. At 1.30 pm now a group arrive at the church to recite the rosary, pondering with Mary on the Mysteries. All are welcome.

Please visit our website: https://www.rercglasgow.org/aphta-initial-teacher-education-support.html for advice and support on the application and interview process for Initial Teacher Education programmes and make sure you sign up for a headteacher mentor before 8th October 2021.

SOUTHSIDE FOODBANK: Check out 'John Battle in-work poverty' on-line to see how hard it can be for families in work and why they may need a Foodbank. Thank you!

Finances: Thanks to all who contribute to the parish upkeep. £1217 was taken up last weekend (19th Sept) at the Masses, a further £248 was handed in as donations also for the parish upkeep, and £16 for the parish renovations.

Standing orders and other bank donations are also most gratefully received. The second collection for SPRED came to £894 plus £150 late donations.

Thanks to those who take up the collection these days, men and women and people of different nationalities to reflect the universality (catholicity) of the Church.

SPRED UPDATE. Thank you to those who came to the SPRED open evening and who offered to help. We hope to begin training shortly with a view to reopening the group in a few months' time.

If you missed the open evening but are interested in getting involved there is still time for you to join in. Contact the SPRED office on 0141 770 5055 or come along to the first training evening on Tuesday, 5th October.

Thank you also for the great generosity shown to SPRED in the recent special collection and in other donations received via the SSVP. Your kindness is greatly appreciated and will be a great help in our efforts to reopen our groups.

radioalba.org: Radio Alba majors on Morning, School, Evening and Night Prayer, and now has recorded Masses on Sunday, and Prayer from Glasgow Churches Together during the week.*

New Pilgrim Path Website of the Week: The Song of Songs: The great mystic, St Teresa of Avila, said that in the Song of Songs the Lord is teaching the soul how to pray.

"Along how many paths, in how many ways, by how many methods you show us love! ...in this Song of Songs, you teach the soul what to say to you... We can make the Bride's prayer our own."

If Teresa is right and the loving, desiring, passionate language of the Song is the language in which God longs to hear the soul speak, many of us may have to make a radical shift in our perception of what it is to love and be loved by God.
