Father Joe writes…

Anointing of the Sick: notice: the faithful whose life is seriously impaired by sickness or old age are encouraged to receive the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick that they may have health of mind and body. This will be celebrated today Sunday 27th August at 3pm. Seats will be allocated for those to be anointed and carers should sit alongside those who are to receive the Sacrament.

Meetings coming up: Tuesday 29th Liturgy

Congratulations to Mary MacIver, from Barra, on her 90th birthday last Saturday.

Marmalade Maker: Jean Finlayson is well known as the maker of marmalade "I cant do much else for the parish except make marmalade" she has often been heard to say.
The empty jars you see piling up in the porch at times are there for her use. Even Mgr Docherty brings along his jars. Another job she does for the parish is to fold the bulletins on a Saturday night along with her good friend Betty McFadden.
Even more valuable are her prayers. Many a person has been uplifted as they see Jean making her way to morning Mass, even in the depths of winter with snow and hail. Her legs, however, she tells us have a mind of their own and at times have prevented her from getting out. Such is the case at the present, but we look forward to her return for Sign up Sunday, to tell everyone to put their name down for something!

Last week's collections: Thanks to all who contributed to the parish upkeep in our first collection which came to £926(including Gift Aid contributions). The second collection for the Assisted Parishes came to £580. Brown envelopes for the hall: £113. Standing order contributions have to be added to the above amounts. Many thanks.
