Bible and Catechism Class. The next meeting is on Tuesday 29th October at 7.30 pm.

Parish Council Meeting. Thanks to all who came along to chart out the events for the year 2020.

Finances Thanks to all who contributed to the parish upkeep.
The second collection for Missio Scotland came to £1526
Further details are available in the printed copy of the bulletin.

Parish Second Collections. It is more appropriate to have only one collection at Mass and so at the start of November we will do away with the 2nd collection when it is for the parish. It is hoped that parishioners will still be as generous.

Fr Joe writes. The hooting of an owl punctured the darkened silence of the night on the wooded hillside just above the Abbey at Pluscarden. It was 8.20 pm, we were heading for bed, and the "ooo-el" every minute or so eased us into sleep. Just before 4.30 am some lights would go on as the community silently assembled to chant the psalms which spoke of the power of God, the weakness of human nature, the cry of the poor, feelings both positive and negative and all the drama of human life. Two readings, one from scripture, were read with clarity and freshness in that night hour.
As the day progressed the community assembled again at 6.15 for Lauds (Praise), Mass at 9 am., before and after lunch, in the evening at 5.30 and again for night prayer at 8 pm.
For the guests there was also plenty of time for rest, for reading, for walking and, for me some time in the garden as well. There were plenty of apples to be picked, limbs stretched to the limit while clinging onto a set of aluminium ladders. It was a big change from Penilee, a retreat from parish routine, a break, but no it does not count as a holiday!
