From a parishioner A few weeks ago, at St Joseph's Clarkston, some of us were privileged to hear the testimony of a young North Korean man, Timothy, who has found asylum in this country. He spoke movingly about his repeated attempts to flee North Korea; about the torture he endured; about his conversion to Christianity. It was a reminder to us of how fortunate we are to live in a place where we can live out and express our beliefs freely. This is our privilege and our responsibility.

A petition to support: Prabath Sithara, Anusha Sugandika and family from Sri Lanka in their application to seek asylum in this country can be signed in the porch.

Church Leaders' statement on Gaza, and on the recognition of the State of Palestine by the United Kingdom Government can be found online.
