Fr Joe writes. There was a Mass in St Ninian's, Knightswood, on 16th September, the feast of St Ninian to celebrate the opening of the new church 60 years ago. Many of the priests who served there over the years were present and the Archbishop was the main concelebrant.

Before joining the other priests I sat in one of the benches near to the back where I once used to sit, for it was in St Ninian's that I spent my formative years. I thought of priests like Fr Mone, Fr Murphy, Dr Connelly, Fr Noon, Fr Kennedy, and Fr Bennett. I began to realise that it was in this church that my vocation was born, in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament during the celebration of Forty Hours.

Being aware of the presence of someone influences our way of thinking. For instance, our way of thinking is different when we are in the presence of our parents than when we are in the company of others. In the presence of the Lord we are influenced by the things he said and did and his life giving peace penetrates our being without our realising it. Yes, it was in St Ninian's that my vocation was born and I am grateful to Fr Balmer and the parish committee who sent me an invitation.
