How do we make sure that they reach out to all parts of our Parish Community? How do we ensure they are enjoyable and attract people? Very simply by coming together to plan for their success – an opportunity for you to contribute to an amazing year. So please come along to a 'Planning Morning' on Saturday 12th October. No previous experience needed, just good common sense and a willingness to share your ideas, to say what will work and what won't. Many hands make light work and your hands are needed!!

Memory Board: One of the most popular suggestions for our celebrations has been for a Memory Board where we can share photos, stories, and memorabilia of our Parish Community over these last 75 years. Have you a photo of your wedding or your First Holy Communion? Do you have a story about the Parish bus run to Ayr or Carfin? What about the Garden Fete? So many memories to celebrate together, so lets getting searching for what we can share. Watch this space for further details
