May they rest in peace. We are asked to pray for those who have died recently, Jean Finlayson, Christine Forbes, (Funeral mass: Tuesday 1st June at 10.30am); and for those whose anniversaries occur about now: John O'Malley, Hugh A Dougan, Agnes Smith, Theresa Marmion(16th), James Marr(6 months).

Pray for those who are ill: for the sick at home, in hospital, in nursing homes.

Fr Joe writes.
Routine hospital visits have been off the cards for some time now, but I was happy to be allowed to attend to Jean Finlayson the evening before she passed away. Jean was a remarkable person coming along to daily Mass even when the weather would have deterred most people. She was always helping others until it came her turn to accept help and care from others and I was amazed at the care and help she received from our parishioners, bringing home to me once again the strength of the Eucharistic community, uniting us with the Lord and with each other. Jean has been in Nazareth House this past year or so and it was her delight to be able to take part in the Mass there. She passed away on Wednesday morning and as my mother would say: "She will go straight up to heaven."
On one of my doorstep visits during the week a good parishioner with the best of eyesight mistook me for the paperboy. I thanked her kindly for the compliment!

Finances Thanks to all who contribute to the parish upkeep. £1128 was taken up last weekend at the Masses, a further £318 was handed in as donation also for the parish upkeep, and £36 for the parish renovations. Standing orders and other bank donations are also most gratefully received.

First Communions: 12th and 19th June; Confirmations: 10th June.

First Reconciliation. This Thursday at 1.30 pm the children of P3 St George's who are baptised in the Catholic Church are to make their First Confession. It has been recommended that due to restrictions that this take place in the school. We are grateful to the teacher(s) who have prepared them so well for the Sacrament.
