Feast of St Peter and St Paul. This year the feast is transferred from the Saturday to Sunday. Both witnessed to the teaching of Jesus Christ to the point of death and are venerated throughout the world, but especially in Rome. The second collection this week is taken up for Peter's Pence, a collection for the running of the Vatican.

Feast of St Thomas. It is said that Thomas preached the gospel in India and among the Christian Indian community there will be great rejoicing on Wednesday 3rd July.

RIP. Felix McCabe (Reception and Mass on Monday 1st July at 9.30 am). Fr Noel Burke (1st Anniversary)

Baptism this Sunday. This week we welcome into the Church Liam Joseph Penders. We join with his parents Billy and Kathryn, and godparents Ashley and Colin in helping Liam Joseph to receive the gift of faith and to practice it in his life.

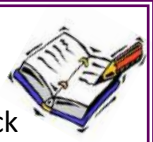

Church Opening During the Day. Monday to Friday the church will be open until 3 pm. Access through the side door facing the hall.

Welcome to Fr Willy Slavin and Fr Sebastian who will be saying the Masses during the few weekend and days the parish priest is away. Fr Willly will be available to sign copies of his book: "Life is not a long Quiet River" at the weekends if you speak nicely to him.

Finances. Thanks to all who contributed to the parish upkeep .

Further details are available in the printed copy of the bulletin.

Fr Joe writes.

Tir Conaill is my destination this year.
The name means the land of Conaill and I was struck by this name when I was looking forward to our trip to Iona for the Golden Jubilee of Fr Pat Hennessy.

St Columbcille was a prince of the Conaill Clan born at Garten, Tir Conaill. It was James VI of Scotland and I of England who changed the name after the Union of the Crowns in 1603. His plan to control the Irish included the Plantation of Ulster with the imposition of landlords loyal to the Crown. It was then that Tir Conaill became Donegal, which means "The Fort of the Stranger". this year I am heading for Tir Conaill.

Maybe next year I will go back to "Donegal".
