Services from Glasgow Churches Together during the week

Welcome! This week we welcome the Mill Hill priests, next week Fr Brendan Murtagh, and then Fr Hugh Seenan to celebrate Mass for us.

And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the powers of death shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Gospel of Matthew: 16

REACHING OUT WITH THE GOOD NEWS: What a host of good ideas came from people at the Sunday Cafe last week- ideas which could reach out to and welcome in all of Our Parish Community!
The suggestions are on display at the back of the Church today. Please take time to have a look and if you want to add anything there are pens and paper nearby.
We will all need to work together to make these joyful celebrations happen in the Autumn. Please pray for the Parish over the Summer so that the Holy Spirit will give us the courage to give generously of our talents and time! Watch this space

General Election 4th July – The bishops of Scotland have published a letter on the General Election, highlighting some of the key issues to help Catholics reflect on and raise with parliamentary candidates. This is accompanied by a list of questions for candidates. For more information and resources, including how to contact candidates, please visit : https://rcpolitics.org/general- election-2024/
A General Election 4 July 2024. The threat of abortion being decriminalised was averted when this election was called, but these extreme proposals are sure to return. The next Parliament will also likely see a big push to legalise assisted suicide. It is therefore vital that we elect MPs who will oppose these threats to life. To contact your candidates, and to check on their voting intentions on pro-life issues, please go to: https://www.spuc.org.uk/General Election.
Leaflets are also available at the back of the church: VALUE YOUR VOTE; GENERAL ELECTION2024
