Fr Joe writes. The day is fast approaching when I step down as parish priest of this wonderful parish and Fr Vincent Toal comes in. On the afternoon of Friday 18th September the change takes place, and I head off to 90 Dunlop St and the Cathedral house. Canon David Wallace is the Administrator there and I am sure he will keep me right in a very nice way. I have been there many years ago, leaving after 5 years in 1989.

In all the parishes in which I have been serving I have experienced the strong faith, the good humour of the people of Glasgow, and the joy that the Gospel brings to our lives. I have learnt so much about the love of God for all creation, and for that I am most grateful.

Fr Vincent Toal will have a different way of doing things which will help to reflect on why we do things, which is a good thing in itself. As we adjust to newness, hopefully, we will see that it is all for the glory of God.
