Fr Joe writes:
"Do you notice any difference?" asked Stephen Blair as he and Arthur varnished the doors in the sacristy. "No!" I replied, but then I had to defend such a blunt answer. "Sure, hardly anyone noticed the painting of the walls in the sacristy and the paint flaking off it big style!"
Actually, I do notice the difference now that the varnish has dried in, but it made me think of how much work is being done in the parish without people taking notice: Douglas Clarkson working away in the choir loft renewing stoppers on kneelers after having done the whole church, Molly Mops on a Monday, musicians, pass-keepers, ministers of Eucharist, readers, bulletin workers, social events team, money team, hall workers…and the list goes on. What motivates them all, especially when there is little recognition? The only answer I can think of is that they are doing it for God, for Love.

Feast of All Saints: Tuesday is a holiday of obligation with Mass at 9.30 am (the Western Catholic Calendar 2016 does not have the correct times) School at 11 am for the pupils of the school).
All Souls Day is on Wednesday with Masses at 9.30 am and 7 pm. At the 7 pm Mass we remember especially those who have died this past year.
A plenary indulgence for the souls in purgatory can be gained from midday 1st November until midnight on the 2nd. Similarly, any day from 1st to the 8th November for visiting a cemetery and praying for those buried there.

Hall Management Meeting took place last Monday. Among other things, the repainting of the main hall and the new dado rail met with approval. Recent costs to replace and service equipment caused serious concerns.
Parish Council Planning Meeting. Relevant matters will be included next week as this bulletin is prepared before the meeting.
Fabric and Planning Meeting: today, Sunday 30th October , 12.15 pm.

Last week's collections Thanks to all who contribute in any way. £945 was taken up at the Presentation of the Gifts (including Gift Aid contributions). Gift Aid Brown envelopes for the hall came to £44 and the second collection for Missio Scotland came to £1514 including Gift Aid envelopes. Standing order contributions have to be added to the above amounts.

Re-arranged Meeting for Neighbourhood Groups. To allow use of the hall the meeting of all who wish to be involved in Neighbourhood Groups has been re-arranged for Thursday 10th November at 7 pm.
